

FYS 525, Fall 2023, Annotated Bibliography

This assignment is the first component of the term paper that is due in December. The annotated bibliography should help you shape your topic and acquire the background information that you need to begin writing a draft. It is due on Thursday, November 2.

Your annotated bibliography should include:

1. A brief (one paragraph, description of your topic. recall that you should “pick an example that we did not discuss in class and describe the economic response. It may be a different example of one of the types of crisis that we have studies or it can be a different type altogether. It may be from any part of the world and at any time in history, as long as good sources exist.”
2. Between 6-12 sources. For each, you should:
  - a. Provide a full and proper citation using a widely used style (Chicago is recommended)
  - b. provide a brief (roughly 100) word description of what information the source provides that may be useful to your paper.
  - c. provide a brief evaluation of how you will use the source. Will it help motivate your paper? Will it provide background information? Does it identify a mechanism for how the crisis affected the economy? Does it describe how the economy responded?.
  - d. A brief (one phrase) description of the type of source. Some of your sources should be scholarly (journal articles, books, etc.). Others may be journalistic (news), opinion, or something else.

I will provide feedback and a a chance to revise/update before you receive grade for the assignment.
